Name: _____________________________________________________
Email address:_______________________________________________
Graduating Class: __________ Date Declared: _________________
Second Major: ______________ Study Abroad: ________________

A total of 14 courses:

3 core CLS courses chosen from 201, 202, 205, 206, 207 and 211

___________________ ____________________ _____________________

2 courses in the student’s first literature of which one is on the 300 level. The first literature is in most cases the literature written in the student’s native tongue.

______________________ _________________________

2 courses in a second (foreign) literature of which one at least is on the 300 level; in case of some languages this requirement will be modified.

____________________ ____________________________

1 course in non-Western literature (in translation or in the original).

_________________________

3 CLS courses on the 300 level of which one is CLS 398, Senior Seminar

____________________ _____________________ ________________________

3 courses in an area of concentration; each area of concentration has to be anchored in a CLS course that serves as a gateway to the concentration

Area of concentration: ______________________________________________

1. Gateway course:
2.
3.

Honors: one unit of 399 (does not count towards the 14 required courses